New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Calder:

It was a pleasant surprise to see your name on the subscription blank--and an added pleasure to find your personal line of greeting.

I will forward the two books within two or three days--am having to await the arrival of the fifth thousand from the printers, as they have exhausted the four preceding editions. The little book is taking a strong hold all across the country, and the songs are being sung by thousands of individuals and by scores of community groups, choruses, clubs, etc. I feel sure that with your sense of the genuine you will find much pleasure in these precious old folk songs of California.

With best wishes,

Sincerely Yours
